FATHER-SON REAL ESTATE TEAM

David and Kyle Babel

Kyle Babel has joined Babel Realty Inc., founded by his father and offering real estate and legal services from its offices in Eastchester and the Bronx.

David J. Babel says his 25 years of real estate experience will combine with his son's millennial perspective and marketing background to expand the Babel Realty brand into all areas of the Bronx and Westchester. "Kyle is passionate about real estate and is especially sensitive to people of all ages and backgrounds," he said.

In addition to being a licensed broker, David Babel is a real estate attorney. His son, who is a graduate of Drexel University, is a licensed real estate salesperson.

Kyle Babel says future growth for Babel Realty will come from serving current clients, developing new ones, enhancing the firm's brand and continuing to cultivate his listings. "And, as we expand, we plan to recruit more like-minded, caring associates," he adds.
